

PolyUnderstanding BIP endorsement statements by Manos Pikoulis / NKUA

The proposed BIP is aligned with the work we are performing in the framework of the MSc Global Health - Disaster Medicine developing training response mechanisms and modules for communities suffering from the health effects of polycrisis.

The proposed BIP will strengthen the existing research work along with the necessary networking among universities and academics in the field of defining polycrisis in humanitarian crisis and response settings.