

4. AWARD CRITERIA (IP:CSW/CSD)

The application for accreditation will be assessed against the following criteria:

Geographical distribution (max 15 points)	Minimum number (3) of partners involved from different geographical areas. The more partners are involved, the higher the score.
Relevance to CIVIS' themes (max 10 points)	The relevance of the proposal to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- the objectives of the Alliance (producing high-quality learning outcomes for participants; reinforcing the capacities and international scope of the organizations participating in the Alliance; increasing student mobility; increasing the recognition of partner institutions among students and academic staff; offering a concentrated educational experience over a short period of time; promoting the exchange of knowledge, ideas and discussions on specific topics; creating bonds among partner institutions, academics and students, offer networking opportunities; supporting structuring learning/research collaboration or strategies; becoming the largest annual extracurricular educational event on campus for the CIVIS partners);</li> <li>- one of the 5 themes of the Alliance (Cities, Territories, Mobilities; Climate, Environment, Energy; Digital &amp; Technological transformations; Health; Society, Culture, Heritage).</li> </ul>
Originality of proposed activities (max 10 points)	The IP:CSW/CSD proposal shall adopt new technological tools according to the needs of the recipients and/or introduce new approaches such as innovative methodologies (i.e., blended mobility, virtual exchanges, etc...).
Interdisciplinarity of proposed activities (max 15 points)	The IP:CSW/CSD proposal shall strive towards an interdisciplinary approach (i.e., by inviting also academics and students from different scientific fields to participate). It should include also guest speakers from government departments, non-governmental organizations, local, regional or national political representatives, decision or policy makers, the business world and civil society to present their views on relevant issues.
Impact of the proposed activities (max 10 points)	The potential impact of the IP:CSW/CSD proposal should be measured according to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- number of students and staff directly involved in the proposed activities;</li> <li>- number of organizations and individuals directly participating in the activities, at institutional, local, regional, national and/or international level.</li> </ul> In addition, the IP:CSW/CSD proposal should improve the regular learning outcomes of the students as well as the skills of staff and create connections to research or other activities/joint academic pathways.
Sustainability of the proposed activities (max 10 points)	Each IP:CSW/CSD proposal can be proposed for a minimum of 1 to a maximum of 3 editions (1 per year), so to ensure its regular implementation for the whole duration of the CIVIS project. It should also be co-financed or self-funded after the 3 rd year.
Visibility and transparency (max 10 points)	The IP:CSW/CSD proposal should guarantee a good visibility of the CIVIS alliance both at local and international level. Besides, every information regarding the project shall be

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union accessible to everyone, in the respect of the G.D.P.R. 679/16 (General Data Protection Regulation).

Transferability of the outcomes (max 10 points)	The IP:CSW/CSD proposal should generate best practices in order to be applicable in further settings.

Provision of recognition of academic activities (max 10 points)	Participation to the IP:CSW/CSD may correspond to a set number of ECTS (to be defined by the organizers), only for students who present a paper. All papers presented will have to be evaluated by the student's professors at the home university. Students who do not present papers but follow the IP:CSW/CSD may receive a Certificate of Attendance from the hosting University. Other participants may be provided with Certificates of Attendance.
--	--

