

CIVIS

A European Civic University

CIVIS short-term mobility course

Modernisms in Transit

"Dialogues and Crossings"

7 - 11 June 2021

Aix-Marseille Université
University of Athens
University of Bucharest
Sapienza University of Rome
Stockholm University
University of Tübingen

Apply by 15 Jan 2021

Content of the course

This intensive 5-day course will explore modernist trajectories across Europe and the Mediterranean focusing on transnational connections and dialogues. The programme will be delivered by specialists working in the fields of history, literature, the visual arts, geography, and philosophy.

Programme:

- Keynote addresses on exile and migration, and on transmodernity, spatiality and borders
- Lectures and seminars on Mediterranean transmodernities
- Roundtables on European imperialism and race, Mediterranean modernities, spatiality and borders, de/monumentalisation in Europe
- Lectures, seminars, and workshops on multiple modernities, European avant-gardes, and peripheral cultural communities
- Lectures, seminars and workshops on transnational modernism and methodological nationalisms, public spaces and monuments, spatiality and borders.

Conditions of application

The course is opened to MA and PhD students working in various fields across the humanities, including Art History and Theory, Literary Studies, Philosophy, Cultural Theory, Geography, and Linguistics.

Details about the application process and enrolment will be posted at <http://transitmod.hypotheses.org>

Applicants are invited to submit their applications to transitivemodernities@gmail.com

Interested in our short-term mobility courses?
Learn more at civis.eu/en