The Programme

Explore money and coinage from a heritage, diachronic and cross-cultural perspective and their roles in transformative practices in the past and present.

Main topics and objectives:

- Use, production and types of money
- Money roles in society and heritage over time
- Pre-modern and global concepts of coins and money
- Theory and method of money studies
- Hands-on management, communication and outreach

The course is a “Blended Intensive Programme”: one digital part with a weekly evening lecture, and an on-site week (Summer School). The Summer School takes place in beautiful Stockholm, Sweden, with study visits to areas nearby. During the course, you will work with a self-chosen topic for a short course assignment, which will also be presented orally on site.

Course dates: 29 April 2025 to 24 June 2025. Stockholm Summer School (on-site week) c. 09 to 13 June 2025 (detailed schedule t.b.a, includes conference and excursions).

Course instructors: Nanouschka Myrberg Burström (Stockholm), Alexander Jost (Salzburg), Stefan Krmnicek (Tübingen), Annalisa Polosa (Rome)
