

eBelong: Academic Communities of Practice in the Context of new EU Alliances

5 MAY

The Learning Center of the University of Bucharest invites members of the academic community to participate in the international event eBelong: Academic Communities of Practice in the Context of new EU Alliances, on 5th May 2023. This is an opportunity for participants to become an active part of a developing community of practice in the context of the CIVIS alliance, open to new collaborations. Confirmation of participation is required by 30th March.

The contact for this event is Camelia Rădulescu (camelia.radulescu@fpse.unibuc.ro), who can also provide more detailed information.

