

Dear PolyCIVIS community and friends,

Hello, bonjour, مرحبا, ciao, γεια σας!

Welcome to the summer edition of PolyCIVIS News!

This issue is packed with exciting content from across the alliance. Inside, you'll find the latest news, valuable resources, upcoming events, opportunities, and much more from our network and the broader community.

At a glance:

- Framing the polycrisis: A Methodological Bootcamp Report
 - PolyCIVIS Consortium Meeting Reflections
 - Food crisis in Africa
 - A look at the different crises from an academic point of view
 - Highlights from across the PolyCIVIS network
 - Opportunities you might be interested in
-

“PolyCIVIS is a great example of how we could effectively link academic research with practical implementation. It is also a reminder that when we produce collective, informed, evidence-based strategies, we can valorize the impact of the produced knowledge and effectively face these global challenges.”

Prof. Ines Ellouze

*Department of Mathematics, Faculty of Science,
University of Sfax
Co-leader of PolyCIVIS' WP5*

PolyCIVIS
Methodological Bootcamp

JANUARY 2024

Framing the Polycrisis

Written by:
Sarah Hasnaoui (AMU)

Coordinators:
Fadma Ait Mous (UH2C)
Maue Carbonell (AMU)

KEY INSIGHTS

- Research WP Presentation
- Keynote speech from Prof. Malte Brosig, University of the Witwatersrand
- Case studies from Europe and Africa and perspectives on Polycrisis

Framing the polycrisis

The Research Methodology Bootcamp Report highlights the best practices in researching the polycrisis concept, utilizing empirical data and examples of crises interconnections to create impactful databases for policymakers.

Delve into the critical work of PolyCIVIS' Research WP, and discover the importance of researching the polycrisis concept.

Access the full report

Consortium Meeting Reflections

Building consensus, creating common understanding and securing consistency throughout the network, were the key outcomes of PolyCIVIS' Consortium Council meeting, held virtually on May 22, 2024.

Photo: François Heinderyckx © 2024

Read the full article

Food crisis in Africa

"Fostering peace and stability is crucial for creating an environment where food security can be sustainably achieved".

Read the full article by Prof. Ali Bougatef and Prof. Mohamed Makni from the Food Department at the Higher Institute of Biotechnology of Sfax, University of Sfax, to learn about effective measures for addressing the food crisis in Africa.

Read the article

A look at the different crises from an academic point of view

"One World, Many Crises: Politics, Law and Beyond" was an international conference held by NKUA (March 2024) calling for greater action and noting that concrete policy responses are needed for a sustainable future. Professor Emmanuella Doussis wrote an article to reflect on the topics raised during the conference.

Read the article

In this article, we highlight the impactful external engagements of our vibrant PolyCIVIS community.

Read more

Don't miss these opportunities to engage in future events addressing today's global challenges.

Discover these opportunities!

Thank you, merci, شكراً, grazie, ευχαριστούμε!

We have a lot more to share over the project's lifetime including the latest news, opportunities, and events about PolyCIVIS!

Do you know someone who would enjoy reading this newsletter? You are welcome to share it!

Follow us on social media and visit our website for more updates and opportunities.

Please contact us at polycivis@ulb.be if you would like to receive further information.

Learn more about PolyCIVIS!

CIVIS - Europe's Civic University Alliance

You've received this email because you've subscribed to our newsletter.

Unsubscribe